CAUTION

At approximately 1:45 p.m. on Wednesday, January 26, 2011, two suspects entered a BB&T bank in the 1900 block of Fort Myer Drive in Arlington, Virginia. One suspect demanded money while the other suspect displayed a handgun. Once the suspects received currency, they fled from the bank. Both suspects were described as African American men of average height and weight, wearing all dark clothing. They also wore items covering their faces. Shortly after the robbery, a portion of money was recovered, and the red dye pack had apparently been set off. It is believed they fled on the Metro.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
